Dear Parents and Caregivers,

It is fantastic to be back at Glenroi Heights Public School. The students have made me feel very welcome.

I have been making my way around all the classrooms. The students are so lucky to be learning in a caring and engaging environment.

This week we will see students rewarded for no loss of Gold Card and for attendance. It is great to see so many students being rewarded.

At the end of the week students and staff will have a well-deserved break. Students and staff will return to school on Tuesday 6th October. When students return in Term 4 they will need to wear a hat in the playground. School hats/sunglasses are available in the office for $10.00 each.

Have a relaxing holiday.

4/3H have been writing arguments. They have been learning about modal verbs and how to use them in their writing to make their arguments stronger.

They have created beautiful silhouette artworks of the Australian landscape.

Book Week 2015

Dear Parents,

GHPS will be celebrating book week 2015 on Thursday 15th October (the second week of Term 2) with a book parade to be held in the school hall. All parents, relatives and friends are invited to attend and we do hope that every child in the school will participate in this activity by dressing up as their favourite book character.

There will be reminders of this event in the following weeks and prior to the event. Please make every effort to assist and encourage your child to participate to make this a memorable occasion.

Kind regards

Joan Lenehan (GHPS Librarian)

We only had one winner last week of our School uniform competition. The winner was Ken Apps. Ken is going to look cool in his new school sunglasses.
Playgroup will start back after the holidays on the first Tuesday which will be the 6th October. We have two playgroups a week where the focus is on having fun with other families. Bring your child in for fun craft activities, sing and dance and have morning tea with other families. (Don’t forget to bring a piece of fruit for Cheeky Monkey’s on Friday). Parents and carers come and enjoy morning tea and a nice warm cuppa!
